Dear Band Parents/Guardians:

With our recent winter weather, it's hard to imagine that the beautiful days of summer will ever arrive again. Have no fear... thoughts of summer band camp are here! What a fantastic opportunity for your child to experience a week or two of in-depth musical study; surrounded by college level teachers, enthusiastic counselors, and new band friends from other towns, counties, and states! Below, please find a list of some area and regional music camps.
